

Claiming your Membership Access to European Urology

Follow these steps to activate your online subscription as EAU member (also required to activate your app access):

1. Visit www.europeanurology.com and click the "Claim Subscription" link appearing at the top, right corner of the page.
2. The next screen will prompt you to Register for an Account. Click "Create Account."
3. Fill in the required information and check the boxes to sign up for alerts.
Note: The registration form will ask you to log in if your email address is recognized as already registered.
4. After registration/log in is completed, you will be prompted to "Activate Online Access."
5. Click the box indicating that you receive your subscription through a society membership. Enter your EAU member ID in the Account Number field (e.g. EAU-123456), and the last name associated with your uroweb.org account (be sure this is all uppercase). Then click "Activate Claim."
6. An onscreen message will confirm your activation was successful. Upon returning to www.europeanurology.com or the app you will need to log in to access the current journal full text.
